What is a scholarship?

A non-repayable sum of money awarded to a student to help finance further education. Most scholarships are based on merit in areas ranging from academic to athletic achievement. Other scholarships are based on financial need, leadership, personal challenges or affiliations.

What is a bursary?

A bursary is a non-repayable grant of money. Bursaries are awarded primarily based on financial need, but academic achievement may also be considered. Usually, the applicant must provide detailed documentation describing their financial institution when applying for the bursary.

Where can I find a list of scholarships and bursaries?

Check the attached document for a partial listing of scholarships. Students are encouraged to scan the internet for opportunities, review university sites, check with employers and community organizations which you or your family are members of. Ms. Footz and Mrs. Richardson can provide you with information on scholarships and bursaries as well as post-secondary and available career information.

When I've found a scholarship I think I may qualify for, what should I do next?

1. Review the application and ensure that you complete it in detail.
2. Be sure to provide your references with your most current resume so they can provide you with the strongest letter of recommendation. Providing the criteria of the scholarship to your referee will also assist in addressing the specific areas of focus.
3. Please note that all reference letter requests
